

Brings results, and that is the object. The Mahoning Dispatch carries messages in advertising form to a large number of people in all parts of the county. You will be more than pleased with results if you advertise in The Dispatch.

The Mahoning Dispatch

VOL. XLIII NO. 46

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1919.

JOB PRINTING DONE

At The Mahoning Dispatch office, not while you wait, but promptly and in a manner that will please you. Prices are consistent with service rendered. A trial order is solicited. Please place it now.

$1.50 A YEAR

TO OUR PATRONS

We have received the bonds of the
FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN
PLEASE ENDORSE YOUR TEMPORARY RECEIPT and bring it to this bank and exchange it for the bonds due you.

If it is not convenient for you to come, endorse your receipt and send it or mail it and we will forward the bonds to you by mail.

The Farmers National Bank

Canfield, Ohio

D. Campbell, Pres.

H. J. Beardsley, Vice Pres.

Mark H. Liddle, Cashier

T. C. Rose, Asst. Cashier.

PUBLIC SALE

Owing to the death of my wife I will offer at public sale on what is known as the Winchester Moherman farm, located 1-4 mile from Mahoning Avenue car line and 2 1/2 miles east of

AUSTINTOWN, OHIO

Thursday, March 6, 1919

Commencing at 9 a. m., Eastern time, the following property:

7 Head of Horses

Consisting of one bay Family Horse 14 years old, one Brown Driving Mare 6 years old, one Bay All Purpose Mare 10 years old, one Bay Draft Mare 8 years old, two Draft Colts coming 3 years old, one Colt two years old.

19 Head of High Grade Holsteins

Consisting of 8 Fresh Cows, some close up Springers and few Fall cows; one thoroughbred registered Holstein Cow, 2 yearling Heifers, Bull coming 2 years old, eligible to register. These cows are young and heavy milkers.

60 R. I. Red Chickens.
Farming Implements—One Walter A. Wood 6-ft. Binder, Osborne Corn Harvester, good as new; Osborne Mower used one season, Walter A. Wood Side Rake, 2 twohorse Cultivators, one-horse Cultivator, 2 Oliver Plows, 2 Harrows, Crown Drill, Spring-tooth Harrow, Potato Digger, Hay Loader, Roller, 2 twohorse Wagons, 2 Spring Wagons, Boat Sled, 3 Buggies, Hay Rope, Fork and Pulleys, 2 sets Double Work Harness, 4 sets of Single Work Harness, Collars and Bridles, 12 Milk Cans, Milk Cooler, Butter Churn, Sharpless Cream Separator, Hay by the ton, Oats by the bushel, Wheat by the acre, lot Household goods and many other articles not mentioned.

Terms:—$10 and under cash; over $10, 3 months credit on bankable note; 2 per cent discount for cash.

Parshal & Durr, Auctioneers. FRED STRYFFELER.
Myron Wehr, W. M. Noffsinger, Clerks. Ladies' Aid will serve lunch.

Special Sale in Our House Furnishing Dept. This Week

| 11.00 CUT GLASS SALE THIS WEEK  |         |
|---|---------|
| Flower Baskets, 6-inch size, at   | $1.00  |
| Vases, 10-inch floral cutting, at   | $1.00  |
| High Footed Comports  | $1.00  |
| Marmalade Jars  | $1.00  |
| Sugars and Creams, each   | $1.00  |
| Dessert Serving Dish  | $1.00  |
| Square Vases, 8-inch  | $1.00  |
| Bowls, 8-inch combination cutting   | $1.00  |
| Bowls, 8-in. Jefferson cutting, at  | $1.00  |
| Celery Trays, Butterfly cutting, at   | $1.00  |
| Covered Candy Jars  | $1.00  |
| Sugars and Creams, set  | $1.00  |
| Celery Trays, Vase cutting  | $1.00  |
| Aluminum Sauce Pans, $2 kind, on sale at   | $1.59  |
| Rice Boilers, aluminum, $2.50 kind, on sale  | $1.99  |
| Large Aluminum Kettles, $2.50 kind, on sale at   | $1.99  |
| 32-piece Dinner Set   | $4.50  |
| 42-piece Dinner Set, six kinds, set   | $9.98  |
| 100-piece Dinner Set, all imported white China, excepting cups, which are fine domestic porcelain, on sale, set | $12.98 |
| 100-piece Dinner Set, beautiful scroll pattern, in blue and white, on sale, set                                 | $29.98 |
| Beautiful Chinese Blue English Porcelain 100-piece Dinner Set   | $38.75 |
| Also carried in open stock.   |         |
| Candida English Porcelain 100-piece Dinner Set  | $57.50 |
| We also have same in open stock.  |         |
| Aluminum Coffee Pots, $2.00 kind, on sale at   | $1.49  |
| 2-piece Covered Aluminum Roasters, $2.00 kind, for   | $1.59  |
| 7 rolls good Toilet Paper   | 29c     |

"SELL CHEAP—SELL A HEAP"

J. H. Roberts

DEPARTMENT STORE

136 E. FEDERAL STREET YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO

Washingtonville

Ansel Senheiser, who was in the military band in France for the past seven months, arrived home Thursday evening. He was the first of our town boys to return from overseas and is surely receiving the glad hand from many friends. Ansel is looking fine, says he had good eats and was treated well by the French people among whom he was most of the time. He says of all the fine sights he has seen his old home town looks the best to him yet.

Owen Slagle of near Greenford, who has returned from overseas, was shaking hands with friends in town last week.

Harvey Baker is able to be about after a week's illness.

Mrs. John S. Davis and son Howard were Salem visitors Saturday.

Mrs. E. E. Warner received word from her son Walter stating he had recovered from an operation and is feeling better than he ever did. He is in France and expects to sail for home soon.

A number of people from here attended the public sale at the home of Louis Hoffman at Leetonia, Thursday.

Henry King and family of New Castle were here at the home of their parents over Sunday. Their son Wilbert, who just returned from France, accompanied them. He enlisted at the beginning of the war and has been honorably discharged.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. King in Salem, Tuesday.

Mrs. Sam Rohrer and daughter Marie were Salem visitors Monday.

Mrs. Hugh McIntosh and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chamberlain attended the funeral of Mrs. Joseph McSwenney in Leetonia Monday.

John Diver's family in improving after being down with the flu, since Olin Hartwell returned home last Thursday, having been discharged from service in the army. He is looking fine.

Mrs. R. P. Beckman and little son and Mrs. Dushman were in Alliance Thursday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Stahl, a daughter, Feb. 12.

Emerson Woolf, another Berlin Center soldier, has landed at New York and will soon be home.

Miss Nettie of Leetonia is the guest of Mrs. Will Hawkins.

Miss Leora Rakestraw returned home Sunday afternoon from Ravensburg where she spent a week with an aunt.

John Hawkins, Marion Diehl and several others in the neighborhood are suffering with influenza.

Lewis Leonard died Sunday morning of pneumonia after a stroke of paralysis suffered several weeks since.

He was among the oldest residents of this township. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Ross Hawkins, four grandchildren, several nieces and nephews and a sister, Mrs. Bartlette, residing in the west. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon with burial in the cemetery west of the village.

Feb. 19.—Mrs. Lorne Hawkins is on the sick list.

Gus Hoprich is preparing to move to Salem.

Dr. LaViers had a public sale last week and will move his family to near Akron.

I. J. Smith was in Warren Saturday. Nearly 33 acres of pasture land belonging to the estate of Jesse Allen, deceased, was sold Saturday at public auction to Alfred Shaffer for $1630.

Quite a number of cases of flu in Berlin and schools are closed.

The K. of P. Lodge had an initiation Friday night. A number from Youngstown were present. An oyster supper was served and a general good time was had.

BERLIN CENTER

Feb. 19.—Emma, wife of Solomon Noel, died at her home last Wednesday evening after a long illness. Funeral services were held at her late home, Sunday at 1:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. Wm. Caven. The remains were placed in the mausoleum at Ellsworth. She leaves an invalid husband, one son Fred at home and two daughters, Mrs. Hattie Goodman of Berlin and Mrs. Samilla Byce of Youngstown. She was a kind neighbor and will be sadly missed by her family and in the community.

School has been closed again on account of flu, Principal Chauncey Case and a number of the high school and eighth grade pupils being victims.

John Diver's family in improving after being down with the flu, since Olin Hartwell returned home last Thursday, having been discharged from service in the army. He is looking fine.

Mrs. R. P. Beckman and little son and Mrs. Dushman were in Alliance Thursday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Stahl, a daughter, Feb. 12.

Emerson Woolf, another Berlin Center soldier, has landed at New York and will soon be home.

Miss Nettie of Leetonia is the guest of Mrs. Will Hawkins.

Miss Leora Rakestraw returned home Sunday afternoon from Ravensburg where she spent a week with an aunt.

John Hawkins, Marion Diehl and several others in the neighborhood are suffering with influenza.

Lewis Leonard died Sunday morning of pneumonia after a stroke of paralysis suffered several weeks since.

He was among the oldest residents of this township. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Ross Hawkins, four grandchildren, several nieces and nephews and a sister, Mrs. Bartlette, residing in the west. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon with burial in the cemetery west of the village.

Feb. 19.—Mrs. Lorne Hawkins is on the sick list.

Gus Hoprich is preparing to move to Salem.

Dr. LaViers had a public sale last week and will move his family to near Akron.

I. J. Smith was in Warren Saturday. Nearly 33 acres of pasture land belonging to the estate of Jesse Allen, deceased, was sold Saturday at public auction to Alfred Shaffer for $1630.

Quite a number of cases of flu in Berlin and schools are closed.

The K. of P. Lodge had an initiation Friday night. A number from Youngstown were present. An oyster supper was served and a general good time was had.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

Feb. 19.—G. W. DeHoff purchased R. O'Rourke's wagon and trailer.

Frank Buchwalter of Austintown is delivering a car load of fertilizer from side track here to members of the Mahoning County Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Mills recently called on R. O'Rourke.

Glen McMahon and Sam Schrum are employed in Youngstown.

Miss Margaret Petrie of Columbus is assisting in taking care of Mrs. G. W. Ripple.

Mrs. Angeline Ohl and son Charles of Warren spent Sunday with relatives here.

C. A. McMahon of Ohl's Crossing recently called on R. O'Rourke.

Mr. and Mrs. John DeHoff of Stark county spent Sunday with the former's parents.

William DeHoff, Co. N, 116 Eng., arrived home from Camp Sherman Monday afternoon, he being the first overseas soldier to arrive here.

Miss Margaret Schaeffer entertained her schoolmates at her home Saturday in honor of her twelfth birthday. A dainty lunch was served. All had a good time and wished her many returns of the day.

Miss Tillie Hopper was at her home over Sunday.

Edith Culp of Calla spent Saturday night with her cousin, Thelma Culp. John Detwiler and family called at C. Boyer's Sunday.

There are several cases of flu in this neighborhood.

Feb. 19.—Harry Huffman spent a few days last week in Youngstown. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gordon of Ellsworth visited last Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McDonald.

S. A. Shaffer has been confined to the house with a sore leg for two weeks, but is improving.

John Wathman and family moved in with Isaiah Dushman last Tuesday. Joel Cobb of Salem called on Sam Shaffer Thursday.

W. B. Cessa spent a few days with his son John at Diamond.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keets visited Thursday at Sam Ammon's in Gettysburg.

S. A. Shaffer is recovering nicely in the Salem hospital.

The oyster supper held in Goshen grange hall Friday evening drew a large crowd.

BOARDMAN

Feb. 19.—Fifteen ladies were present at the Red Cross sewing at the school house Wednesday.

J. L. Taggart of the county experiment farm trimmed apple trees for Frank Agnew one day last week.

Mark Hilkey was delighted when the drillers completed their work to find that he had a flowing well.

Mrs. Anthony Calvin, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Umstead, motored to Cuyahoga Falls Thursday. Mrs. Umstead remained there to visit Mrs. B. F. Phillips but Mrs. Calvin returned the same day, altogether driving 180 miles.

The officers of the cemetery association met with Dr. H. S. Thorne Friday evening. The trustees decided to build slag drives in the cemetery.

Frank Agnew, who was present at the Horticultural Society gathering in Greenford, reports a very profitable and enjoyable meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Chambers were in Youngstown Thursday.

Mrs. O. H. Stafford was a Sunday dinner guest at her aunt, Miss Kate Stafford, in Youngstown.

Ora Aubel, one of our soldier boys, is stationed at Luxemburg, Germany.

Mrs. Frank Agnew and sons Norman and Myron were Canfield callers Saturday.

The lecture given by F. D. Myers of Canfield on the Philippines was well attended and appreciated by all.

Elaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Phillips, has a light attack of pneumonia.

Walter Kerr was in Youngstown Monday afternoon.

H. C. Heintzelman called at Henry Goldner's in Leetonia Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. John Cain and son John were in Youngstown Saturday afternoon.

Farrell, Pa., boys and girls basketball teams came here Saturday evening and played a good game. Score boys 47 to 3, girls 18 to 1 in favor of Boardman.

The Boy Scouts of Boardman had a father and son banquet last Thursday evening. Those who served were Mrs. L. H. Benton, Mrs. O. H. Stafford, Mrs. Frank Agnew and Mrs. H. C. Heintzelman, assisted by Mrs. Melnick of Youngstown, chief executive, attending.

Those present were Mr. Carlson and son, Mr. Duke and son, Mr. Flowers and son, Mr. Dauby and son, Mr. Holl and son, Mr. Rice and son, Mr. Arbuckle and nephew, Mr. Bell and son, Mr. Fries and son, Mr. Agnew and son, Mr. Stafford and son, Mr. Pennington and son, Mr. Dillie and son, Mr. Gleckler and son, Mr. Smith and son, Mr. Catherman and son, Mr. Heintzelman and son, Russell Sprinkle, Russell Paulin, Cecil Edmonds, Joseph Sweeney, Prof. G. M. Barton and Rev. W. F. Pond.

After supper they all went to the gymnasium and played Scout games which were enjoyed as much by the fathers as by the sons.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Joshua had callers from Youngstown Sunday.

Myrtle Johnson and Esther Heintzelman spent Sunday afternoon at Harry Miller's in Woodworth.

Henry Sparrow was in Youngstown Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Fitch sold her place at Indianapolis and is moving to Canfield.

Elizabeth Moody, who has been sick for some time, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Holt entertained company from Youngstown Saturday evening.

Nathan Hallett was in Youngstown Saturday.

Esther Heintzelman and Myrtle Johnson spent Saturday evening with Mrs. McClurg of Southern park.

Mr. Andrew Lin John's brother, Fred Eich, and wife, who was at Mr. Lindahl's a greater part of the year working at lead burning, has gone to Chicago where he has a five months job at the same work.

Mrs. H. P. Lyman of West Andover, Mrs. Chas. Zimmerman, Mrs. J. S. Zimmerman, Mrs. F. W. Zimmerman of Youngstown and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Osborn of Tippecanoe spent Tuesday at H. C. Heintzelman's.

The masquerade party at Horace H. C. Heintzelman of this place and Alvin Thomas of Youngstown attended the funeral of their uncle, Wm. Heintzelman, in Canton today.

James Robison of Youngstown called on Harry Davis Tuesday afternoon.

MAPLE GROVE

Feb. 19.—Mrs. John Cook has returned from Salem where she cared for her daughter, Mrs. John Sauerwein, Clark Fitzpatrick, wife and son Gilbert called at E. M. Detwiler's Sunday.

Archie Culp and family of Calla spent Sunday at the home of Chas. Davis.

Mrs. Margery Schaeffer entertained her schoolmates at her home Saturday in honor of her twelfth birthday. A dainty lunch was served. All had a good time and wished her many returns of the day.

Miss Tillie Hopper was at her home over Sunday.

Edith Culp of Calla spent Saturday night with her cousin, Thelma Culp. John Detwiler and family called at C. Boyer's Sunday.

There are several cases of flu in this neighborhood.

HICKORY

Feb. 19.—Harry Huffman spent a few days last week in Youngstown. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gordon of Ellsworth visited last Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McDonald.

S. A. Shaffer has been confined to the house with a sore leg for two weeks, but is improving.

John Wathman and family moved in with Isaiah Dushman last Tuesday. Joel Cobb of Salem called on Sam Shaffer Thursday.

W. B. Cessa spent a few days with his son John at Diamond.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keets visited Thursday at Sam Ammon's in Gettysburg.

S. A. Shaffer is recovering nicely in the Salem hospital.

The oyster supper held in Goshen grange hall Friday evening drew a large crowd.

ISLAND

Feb. 19.—Miss Ida Witmer is suffering from bronchitis.

Homer Schaeffer was a Columbiana caller Sunday.

James Rogers of East Palestine was a week end guest of A. W. Detrow and family.

Oliver Herman and Nannie Swope spent Sunday with Harvey Metzler and family.

The many friends of Miss Iva Rowe are glad to learn that she is steadily improving.

Menno Brubaker is preparing to build a new barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brudery and son Albert Moser of Sebring, Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Brudery of Salem and Elmer Miers of Snoddes were entertained Sunday by Fred Brudery and family.

Penrose and Homer Schaeffer were in New Waterford one day last week.

J. J. Witmer and family entertained Island young folks Sunday evening in honor of Pharis and John Martin of Dalton.

Relatives here have received word of the serious illness with pneumonia of Mrs. Oliver Calvin at her home in Youngstown.

Walter Johnson is preparing to build a straw shed.

H. N. Detwiler and family called at Sam Good's Sunday.

Mrs. John Cook has returned home after spending three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. John Sauerwein, at the Salem hospital.

Mrs. Susan Lehman is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Margaret Schaeffer recently entertained a number of schoolmates at a birthday party at her home in Confederate Corners.

Miss Mary Knopp, who is assisting Mrs. Bert Rohrer at North Lima, spent Sunday with her father, J. M. Knopp, and family.

Abram Krieder of Wadsworth is spending some time with relatives here.

Miss Mattie Rohrer is assisting Mrs. Susan Horst.

C. S. Lesher and Henry Schaeffer are among the sick.

Arthur Burns of North Lima is spending several days with relatives here.

When the Islanders woke up Sunday morning they were alarmed to see a fire in the east. Later they learned it was Noah Burkholder's barn that burned to the ground.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Lesher called on Henry Schaeffer and family one day recently.

Aaron Brubaker has rented a saw mill to fulfill his contract with Walter Johnson and others.

F. A. Schaeffer called on Ed. Frankford in Washingtonville Sunday.

A. A. Stahl of Greenford furnished members of the County Farm Bureau with a car load of fertilizer, at Washingtonville, Tuesday.

Owen Slagle recently returned from over seas, received his discharge at Camp Sherman and returned home Thursday.

Homer and Penrose Schaeffer marked 265 dozen of eggs in Youngstown Saturday.

Mrs. H. H. Calvin called on Mrs. Lucy Calvin in Youngstown Monday.

Bobbie Lechner of Leetonia has been employed by A. W. Detrow for the summer.

Wm. Holt's faithful old horse, Jerry, has never missed a trip for more than 15 years in gathering up butter and eggs every Friday failed to make his appearance last week. Mr. Holt thinks that probably the age of Jerry is against him. However, he is only 23 years old and has delivered more coal at Washingtonville than any other horse living today. We fear old Bill's strength may also fail him in gathering the produce on foot and hope for early recovery for Jerry.

LYNN STREET

Feb. 19.—Winter weather seems to be prevailing since groundhog day, but we are all glad that it is not a severe winter like last year.

The masquerade party at Horace H. C. Heintzelman of this place and Alvin Thomas of Youngstown attended the funeral of their uncle, Wm. Heintzelman, in Canton today.

James Robison of Youngstown called on Harry Davis Tuesday afternoon.

The funeral of Isaac Crum of Youngstown Sunday was largely attended. He was laid to rest in the Cornersburg Lutheran cemetery.

Mrs. John Macfarlane of Youngstown spent a few days last week with Mrs. A. S. Lynn and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bush spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howard of North Jackson.

The pupils and van drivers of Canfield township are having a lengthy vacation this year.

Lester Redfoot of Leetonia was a recent caller on the street.

Feb. 12.—Delayed—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bancroft pleasantly entertained the following friends and neighbors: Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Norris and son Norman and Mr. and Mrs. George Norris of Youngstown, Mr. and Mrs. George Late, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Chubb, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Sanzenbacher and daughter Gertrude spent Sunday with Wm. H. Bush and family.

Mrs. Carrie Johnson visited Mrs. N. S. Lynn, Wednesday.

The funeral of Isaac Crum of Youngstown Sunday was largely attended. He was laid to rest in the Cornersburg